7 Reasons to Participate in the 3rd Electric Vehicle Bangladesh Expo 2026

1. The global EV market is charging ahead with exponential year-on-year growth, and BloombergNEF projects that by 2040 electric vehicles will account for a stunning 54% of all new car sales—cementing their role as the dominant force reshaping the future of mobility worldwide.

2. Bangladesh's automotive market, including the fast-emerging EV segment, is accelerating at a blistering 10–12% annual growth rate—signaling a dynamic expansion that's reshaping mobility, fueling investment, and positioning the nation as a rising powerhouse in the global automotive arena.

3. By 2026, Bangladesh's automobile market demand has raced past the 100,000-vehicle mark annually, with the EV sector spearheading growth—driven by rising environmental awareness, bold government incentives, and rapidly expanding charging infrastructure that's propelling the nation into a new era of sustainable mobility.

4. Engage directly with policymakers and industry influencers to shape the future of Bangladesh's EV market—where rising demand, government incentives, and expanding infrastructure converge to unlock bold opportunities, drive sustainable growth, and position the nation at the forefront of next-generation mobility.

5. Showcase your cutting-edge electric vehicle models, breakthrough components, and next-gen technologies to a wide audience—gaining maximum visibility among key industry players, decision-makers, and potential customers eager to connect with innovators driving the future of sustainable mobility.

6. The Bangladesh government is driving the EV revolution with bold policies—offering tax exemptions, subsidies, and incentives for both manufacturers and buyers—while simultaneously expanding charging infrastructure nationwide to accelerate the country's transition toward sustainable electric mobility.

7. Participating in the 3rd Electric Vehicle Bangladesh Expo 2026 unlocks unmatched opportunities to accelerate your business growth, expand your industry network, and play a pivotal role in shaping the nation's sustainable transportation future—connecting you directly with innovators, policymakers, and customers driving the EV revolution.
